N. Terry Godbold, ACAS, MAAA, FCA

Godbold, Malpere & Co. Joins Forces with Pinnacle Actuarial Resources, Inc.

Bloomington, IL., December 30, 2010 – Terry Godbold and the employees of Godbold, Malpere & Co. (GM&Co.) of Roswell, Georgia will join Pinnacle Actuarial Resources, Inc., effective January 1, 2011.

Terry Godbold's actuarial consulting business has focused on statutory loss reserve opinions for domestic property/casualty insurance companies, captive insurance companies and self-insured entities. Located in the greater Atlanta area, Mr. Godbold's actuarial career spans over 35 years and is accompanied by many prestigious leadership roles within the actuarial industry.

"This provides Pinnacle with a strong presence in the southeastern United States, which is a very important target-rich market for our services," stated Joseph A. Herbers, Managing Principal of Pinnacle. "Terry's experience and long established client base fits in well with Pinnacle's strategic plan," said Herbers.

Godbold's practice includes statutory financial examination work with a number of states, appointed actuarial services for companies involved in nonstandard auto insurance and with lawyers professional liability markets. GM&Co. is very active with public entity clients and is engaged in audit support services with several audit firms.

"Joining an established firm that is both well-known and well-respected allows continued success in utilizing Pinnacle's expertise and established global resources to support our efforts of providing outstanding professional services to our clients," said Terry Godbold.

Terry, and his wife Mary Jo Godbold, also a consulting actuary and both Associate members of the Casualty Actuarial Society and of the American Academy of Actuaries, bring 25 years of consulting experience each to Pinnacle. Mr. Godbold is a Fellow in the Conference of Consulting Actuaries. Both Terry and Mary Jo have similar career paths, beginning with the Harford Insurance Group (Hartford, CT) in the early 70s, moving to Great American Insurance Company (Cincinnati, OH) later that decade. Terry joined Capital Enterprise Insurance Company in the early 80s, and along with Mary Jo joined the consulting ranks with Ernst & Young (Louisville, KY) in the mid 80s. Forming GM&Co. in 1994, this team has been based and practicing in the Atlanta area since. Terry remains an active and steadfast alum of Florida State University.
