Robert J. Walling III, FCAS, MAAA, CERA
Principal and Consulting Actuary

Pinnacle’s Rob Walling Again Named One of Captive Review’s Power 50

For the second consecutive year, Captive Review has named Pinnacle Actuarial Resources, Inc. Principal and Consulting Actuary Robert J. Walling III, FCAS, MAAA, CERA to its Power 50 list. The Power 50, compiled based on votes by more than 6,000 captive insurance professionals, recognizes key influencers in the global captive insurance industry.

“To repeat as a member of the Captive Review Power 50 this year is a tremendous honor,” said Mr. Walling. “It’s a reflection of the great work and customer service Pinnacle’s captive teams provide each and every day.” Walling has been consulting in the captive insurance space since 1997.

Mr. Walling serves scores of captives, including enterprise risk captives, large single-parent captives, group captives and risk retention groups that are managed by more than thirty captive managers. He has also worked for more than twenty state insurance departments, including many of the leading captive domiciles. Mr. Walling has served as an expert witness in a number of venues, most notably the U.S. Tax Court.

Pinnacle’s Managing Principal, Joe Herbers, ACAS, MAAA, CERA, stated, “The firm is thrilled that Rob’s valued contributions to the captive industry have once again been recognized. His consistent high-quality work continues to play an integral role in the expansion of Pinnacle’s captive practice.”

Owned by its professional staff, Pinnacle ranks among the largest U.S. property/casualty actuarial firms in the United States. Its dedicated Consultants focus on serving the captive and alternative markets and are experts at program design, data evaluation and analysis. Pinnacle serves hundreds of captive and alternative market clients, self-insured employers and risk-retention groups.
Headquartered in Bloomington, Ill., the firm also has offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Indianapolis and San Francisco. Pinnacle provides expertise, superior communication, empathetic customer service and helps companies drive better business decisions.
